LEGISLATIVE INCIDENTS.

The most important question before the House yesterday was the House bill

in regard to the salary and mileage of County Commissioners. The matter was thoroughly discussed by the leading members of both parties, though no party bias was exhibited. After at least a dozen amendments failed, the substitute for the bill offered by the committee on salaries and fees, to whom it was referred, passed, which allows

County Commissioners, in addition to their present per diem, 5 cents mileage

to and from their homes. The bill was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The bill praying for a charter for the

New York, Norfolk and Charleston

Railroad was discussed in the Senate yesterday with much animation. Mr.

Grandy, of Pasquotank, made the most earnest speech of the session, favoring the granting of the charter. His ire was slightly raised by the impression that some of the Senators from the center and West opposed the measure. The bill passed its second reading, and will probably pass its third reading to-day, with restrictions preventing its passing into the hands of foreign corporations.

The question of Constitutional

Amendments was yesterday considered in the Senate, eliciting much debate.

It is certain that the bill will not be acted upon definitely before the recess shall have closed. The Republican members yesterday expressed themselves as favoring some of the proposed amendments, but it is thought the whole

bill cannot be passed.

The bill of McGeehe, of Person,

making it a capital offense to obstruct

the passage of Railroad trains, impair the road bed, shoot at or throw at the cars, either in motion or at rest, was also one of some importance, and passed its several readings.

The Senate concurred in the House

resolutions requesting the Governor to issue a proclamation with a view of preventing immigration from the State.

The Senate chamber is dry to a

MORE OF THE ACCORD.

We commend to Gov. Caldwell's careful attention and study the mournful condition of affairs in poor South Carolina—a State "in full accord with the Government."

Moses, the Radical Governor, while he was Speaker of one of the branches of the Legislature, was guilty of such corrupt practices that when he was afterwards nominated for Governor, Hon. James L. Orr and other decent Republicans withdrew in a body from the Convention, declaring they would not support a man of such a notoriously bad character.

Well, the Radical Legislature assembled a few days since—a body that is "in full accord" with Governor Moses. On Tuesday, they elected to the United States Senate a fellow by the name of Patterson, who is doubtless likewise "in full accord" with Moses and the Legislature, for within a few hours after his election he was arrested and lodged in jail, charged with the crime of bribery.

Let Gov. Caldwell contemplate this agreeable picture of concordance. A United States Senator elected by the Legislature of a State "in full accord with the Government" now closely imprisoned in a felon's cell!

But need this awaken surprise? Need the people of the United States be astonished at any act of turpitude committed by the South Carolina Legislature? Need there be any amazement expressed at the spectacle which we this day behold in a sister State, of a Radical Senator elected arrested for an infamous crime? Why need we be shocked at anything that the South Carolina Legislature should do, when we remember the material of which it is composed—when we remember that the talent, the virtue and the intelligence of the State are consigned by Radical votes to private life, while ignorance, vice and corruption reign supreme in the council halls and in the judicial chambers!

But we must be silent. South Carolina is "in full accord with the Government." She is a loyal State, and must not be disturbed.

REDUCTION OF THE GOVERNOR'S SALARY.

Mr. Morrison's bill for the reduction of the Governor's salary from $5,000 to $3,000, passed the House of Representatives on Wednesday, after being amended by making the amount $4,000.

We are not disposed, because the Radicals have gained a temporary control of the Executive department, to advocate any measure through partisan spite or partisan feeling. We would do nothing in derogation of the dignity and honor of the exalted position of Governor of North Carolina, because the incumbent happens to be of opposite politics from our own. But in these times of pecuniary embarrassment—when the State is overwhelmingly in debt—when burdensome taxes are eating up the substance of our people—when private citizens are groaning beneath the weight of individual obligations, which they are unable to meet from loss of property swept away by the war—when the cry for economy comes from the masses all over the State, we are in favor of every step looking towards retrenchment and reform.

The reduction of the Governor's salary from $5,000 to $4,000 we regard as a timely measure, and we believe such reduction is demanded by the financial condition of the State and of the people generally.

In the action of the House of Representatives on this question, our Legislators have been guided by a principle of economy. In reducing the salary to $4,000 they have not made the amount so small as to be disrespectful to the dignity of the office, at the same time they have shown a disposition to curtail the expenses of the State Government.

The chief difficulty heretofore in making such reforms has been the delay and expense incurred by the State in the protracted debates and speeches in the Legislature, when any changes of the law are proposed. Therefore we hope the Senate will promptly concur in the House bill as amended, for a lengthy and unnecessary discussion of its merits will be a greater mischief than the evil proposed to be remedied. In attempting to save North Carolina one thousand dollars per annum, this measure of intended reform may prove in reality an expense to the State.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

The decision of Judge McArthur, of the Criminal Court of Washington City, published several days ago in our telegraphic dispatches, on the rights of restaurant and hotel keepers, is attracting much attention, and exciting considerable comment on the part of the press.

A white man by the name of Aman, of Washington City, was fined $100.00, by the Police Court, for refusing to wait on a colored man who applied at the former's restaurant for refreshments. Aman took an appeal to the Criminal Court from the Police Court, where the case was argued before Judge McArthur who reversed the decision of the Court below, holding that the proprietor of a hotel or restaurant was the sole and proper judge as to whom he would furnish with lodging or refreshments, and that his authority in the matter could not be disputed. Accordingly he gave judgment in favor of Aman, and dismissed the proceedings.

If we are not mistaken, a similar attempt was made by some colored men in Wilmington, in this State, either to indict a white man, keeper of a restaurant, for refusing to sell them drinks, or to institute a civil suit for damages under the civil rights bill. The proceedings from some cause or other miscarried, for the white man was not indicted or sued.

If Judge McArthur's opinion as above stated is sustained, the decision will have an important bearing in this country, and will settle a legal question which has given rise to much litigation and discussion.

THE TROUBLES IN ALABAMA.

We alluded yesterday to the delightful state of affairs in three reconstructed States of South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana.

Our telegrams yesterday gave us the intelligence of the Radical Governor Lewis, of Alabama, to take possession of the capitol which is now used by the Conservative Legislators. While the Legislature was in session, the Sheriff entered the Senate with a warrant from Gov. Lewis, authorizing him to take possession of the capitol. The Senate immediately ordered the arrest of the Sheriff for contempt, but on his explaining that he was acting under orders from the Governor and meant no disrespect to the Senate, he was released from custody.

This state of affairs produced an intense feeling of excitement throughout the city of Montgomery, and the Federal troops stationed near the capitol were placed under arms, ready to put down any outbreak that might occur.

Before adjourning, the Senate empowered its Sergeant-at-Arms to summon sufficient force to protect the capitol building against all persons except the Federal troops.

The Sheriff then applied for admission, in the name of Gov. Lewis, to the Hall of the House of Representatives, but was refused, and quietly withdrew.

The Radical Legislature still occupies the Court Room, and shows no disposition to yield an inch of ground.

Thus matters stand at present, with no prospect of improvement. Alabama is on the eve of civil war, and as we stated yesterday, we need not be surprised to hear, at any moment, that the State has been plunged into bloodshed.

The trouble seems to have originated by the Radical members of the Legislature refusing to co-operate with the Conservative members in the organization of the two Houses, because the latter had a majority in both branches. If the Radicals had gone in with their opponents, they being in the minority, would have lost control of the State and all the offices to be filled by the Legislature—the most important of which was that of U. S. Senator. It would appear, therefore, that all the difficulty has been caused by a mere scramble for spoils on the part of the Radicals, who are willing to see the State plunged into anarchy and revolution rather than surrender the leaves and fishes.

AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION.

Several bills have been already introduced in Congress looking to the amendment of the Constitution in various particulars.

One of the amendments proposed is the abolition of the electoral college, and the election of President by the popular vote. This seems to meet with favor among both parties. Another change proposed is limiting the President to one term—thus making him ineligible for re-election.

The New York Herald, alluding to these two changes, proposes two others, to-wit, one giving all the Federal officers a term equal to the President, but commencing and ending at the middle of the Presidential term, which in case the President is made ineligible for re-election, should be extended to six years; and the other requiring all the State elections to be held on the same day when the people vote for President. In addition to these, the Richmond Whig suggests a fifth, to-wit, that every ballot shall be open, with the name of the voter written upon it.

NORTH CAROLINA MINERALS.

Colonel Saunders, of the Wilmington Journal, in a recent editorial correspondence from this city, has the following on the bill to be introduced into the Legislature on the subject of collecting specimens of our minerals and metals, for exhibition at Vienna:

Amongst the bills intended to be introduced, is one instructing the State Geologist to collect a cabinet of specimens of the mineral and metallic wealth of North Carolina, to be sent for exhibition to the great World's Industrial Exposition, to be held next year at Vienna. The suggestion comes from Mr. Dully, the accomplished editor of the Greensboro Patriot, and it strikes us as a very sensible and patriotic one.

A DESTRUCTIVE fire broke out in Smithville on Monday night, destroying buildings owned by the Rev. W. M. D. Moore, Capt. C. C. Moore and Thomas Brinkman. Carelessness of servants the cause.

THE Hillsboro Recorder regrets to learn that the health of Col. Wm. Bingham is such that he has been compelled to interrupt his duties as a teacher, and seek the restoration of his health in the milder climate of Florida. Says the Recorder: "The interest of the school will not however materially suffer by his absence, the skill and reputation of his coadjutors being well proportioned to the character of their Principal."
